PETITION AGAINST SALOON INCREASE

The board of supervisors ment in regular session Monday, May 8th, at 10 a. m., there being present Jos. M. Francis, presiding; Jas. T. Casey, Wm. H. Brown, John MacBain and C. V. Thompson.

A petition signed by Mrs. Richard F. Smith and fifty-five other tax-payers and citizens of Millbrae, was received, protesting against the issuance of any more liquor licenses for saloons in that town, the petitioners contending that the present number of saloons, four, is amply sufficient. The petition was ordered filed, on motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain.

A report from Anne Bell Bailey, county librarian, showing an expenditure of $244.30 for the month of April, was received and ordered filed.

The San Mateo County Bar Association, through its secretary, Archer Kincaid, directed a communication to the board, recommending for appointment as trustees of the association, J. W. Colebird of South San Francisco, Charles N. Kirkbride of San Mateo and Edw. F. Fitzpatrick of Redwood City.

On motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain, the three persons recommended by the bar association were duly appointed and with the chairman of the board of Supervisors and the Judge of the Superior Court, will constitute the board of trustees of the law library.

The auditor's statement, showing the aggregate amount of allowance that can be made against the several funds of the county for the month of May, 1916, was received and ordered filed.

Chairman Francis reported that the Ocean Shore Railroad Company had closed two crossings near Farrallone in his district, very much to the inconvenience and annoyance of a number of residents on the west side of the track, who were left without any means of getting to their homes. The matter was referred to Surveyor Neuman to investigate and ascertain if the county does not hold rights of way over the said crossings.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Casey, it was ordered that the county auditor and treasurer be directed to transfer the sum of $405.00 from the General fund to the Fourth road district fund.

The name of Mrs. E. Bertellatti of Halfmoon Bay was ordered stricken from the Indigent list, the party having recently married.

The board canvassed the returns of the Presidential Primary election held May 2d. The tally sheets were carefully examined and the total vote of each of the candidates for electors ascertained and the results legally declared.

Deeds to a strip of land for a right of way for the Pescadero-San Gregorio road through the Joe Brazil and V. Mattei properties were presented by Surveyor Neuman. The deeds were accepted, on motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown, and ordered recorded and claims for the payment of the property conveyed allowed.

The claim of R. D. Savage, the contractor, for construction work performed in the First District, and amounting to $944.75, was ordered paid out of the San Pedro mountain fence fund.

Antonio Peregrina, aged 68, a resident of Redwood City, and in ill health was granted county aid in the sum of $8 a month, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown..

Mrs. P. Demartini, a resident of Burlingame who on account of illness is unable to earn her livelihood, was granted $8 per month, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown.

After the allowance of claims, the board adjourned at 12:20 p. m., to meet next Monday, May 15th, at 10 a. m.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

What is this rather elusive and much desired quality in a school?

Ordinarily it means the noise made at a rally or at a debate or in a game. It is usually measured by volume, and the best students seldom lead at such times.

But one is led to ask is this the only form of school spirit? And we are glad to say it is not. There are nobler things than this. Students who do honest, steady work are the best examples of school spirit. So are those who are always found just where they belong and who are learning to be reliable and trustworthy. Both of these will make the men and women the world needs.

Then energy should be the motive of power in school. Out in the great world shirkers have a hard time. Nobody will employ such people long. It doesn't pay to come to school unless you are willing to work. Nobody ever excelled in athletics without a supreme effort. How some people expect to get along in the world is a puzzle. They seem to feel all they get out of at school is so much gain. But is it? Do you get strong in mind or body by what you do with all your might, or by what you manage to get out of? A student who won't work, teachers find it hard to respect and they are usually well educated people. They got that education only by great effort, and the expenditure besides of much time and money.—S. P. M.

Gus Waller has been awarded a contract to erect a story and a half bungalow in Redwood Highlands for George Hopkins. The stipulated price of the contract is $3,275.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE MAY STRIVE FOR SENATE

From every section of the State of California there is a strong appeal to Samuel M. Shortridge to enter the race for the United States Senate. Even from Los Angeles, where a senatorial candidate is being groomed for some months, there comes an earnest request from the Young Republican Club to him to enter the race for the toga as a candidate for no particular section but to become an aspirant from the whole state. Mr. Shortridge is considering these appeals with which he is almost immersed. The request is so earnest, so strong from all political parties and from every corner of the state that the eloquent lawyer and great orator may decide to enter the contest. He cannot lightly lay aside this call from the people. Should he decide to become a candidate, there is scarcely any doubt of his election. This is a Republican year and the Republican candidate for the Senate is almost certain of election.

Mr. Shortridge has been a leader of the Republican party of California for many years; he is an orator of ability and marked persuasive power, and to his efforts many of the most prominent men of the state owe their success in politics. He has spent the best portion of his life in this state and has labored hard and faithfully to promote the best interests of the state and its people. Whenever the state needed a champion, Samuel Shortridge has always responded to the call. We have known him from the time he first began to practice law and it affords us pleasure at this time to lend our endorsement to his candidacy. For over thirty years he has canvassed the state for the Republican party at his own expense. Samuel Shortridge is a man of brains, character, loyalty and unquestioned ability in every sense of the term. The people of this state would do themselves proud in sending him to the United States Senate. His platform is his past record.

To Mr. Shortridge's credit, be it said that he has never been a seeker of political favors. His loyalty to his great political party has amounted to devotion. In every important campaign he has traversed this state and addressed the citizens of every county in California, and yet withal his claims to consideration, he has preferred the private station to public office.

APPRECIATION EXPRESSED

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Regular Republican Presidential Campaign Committee held on May 5th, 1916:

Whereas, the sweeping victory at the presidential primary election, May 2, 1916, of the Regular Republican candidates was most gratifying to the Republicans of California who have been struggling against great obstacles for the preservation of the Republican Party; and,

Whereas, the Regular Republican Presidential Campaign Committee is most mindful of the able work of the Times-Gazette in helping to safeguard the party by the intelligent use of its news and editorial columns; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Regular Republican Presidential Campaign Committee do and it hereby does compliment the Times-Gazette on its dignified and effective campaign on behalf of the Regular Republican ticket and expresses for the rank and file of the Republican Party of California the fullest appreciation of the co-operation with which the Times-Gazette has worked with the Campaign Committee.

Regular Republican Presidential Campaign Committee; W. F. Mixon, Vice-Chairman; R. M. Armstrong, Secretary.

The 1916 Floral Festival is a thing of the past but it will live long in the memory of those who witnessed the magnificent spectacle. Thursday, May 4 certainly made history for Redwood providing a fitting climax for the week of entertainment given by this city for their state convention. In our issue of last week we inadvertantly stated that the Floral Festival was given under the auspices of the Redwood City Woman's Club, when as a matter of fact it was the joint work of the fraternal orders of Redwood. The floral festival is the result of a plan fostered by the Woman's Club five years ago. Each year since then the festival has been handled by the citizens at large, and each year the affair has grown in magnitude. There is no doubt it will keep growing. The 1916 Committee, consisting of the following representatives of fraternal orders, has however, set a mark that will be hard to eclipse:

Embarkadero Camp, 256, W. O. W.—Dr. J. E. Chapin, M. Paulsen, M. A. Sharkey and F W. Glennan.

Fraternal Aid Union—Miss Pearl George, Miss Charlotte Bullivant and Gordon Seely.

MANY ATTEND DEFENSE MEETING AT GILROY

Jos. H. Nash Elected Vice-President Pacific Coast Defense League

An election of officers at the meeting of the Pacific Coast National Defense League held yesterday afternoon at Gilroy resulted in J. P. Pryor of Monterey being chosen as president of the organization. W. G. Fitzgerald of Gilroy and Joseph Nash of Redwood City are the new vice presidents, W. N. Cumming of Watsonville is the treasurer and S. J. Duckworth of Watsonville is the secretary. An executive committee was also elected as follows: Dr. J. W. Thayer of Gilroy, O. D. Stoesser and E. W. Sherman of Watsonville is the secretary.

The actual detail work of the organization will be done by Secretary Duckworth, the executive committee to act in an advisory capacity when necessary. An active campaign will be waged in the near future by Secretary Duckworth for new members and to spread the propoganda of the organization far and near.

Among those that addressed the meeting at Gilroy yesterday were Assemblyman H. E. McPherson of Santa Cruz, J. M. Johnson of Montara, J. P. Pryor of Monterey, O. D. Stoesser of Watsonville, W. G. Fitzgerald of Gilroy and S. J. Duckworth of Watsonville.

The address of Mr. Johnson on the naval requirements of the Pacific coast was more than interesting. It was truly impressive. Mr. Johnson has a magnificent physique, is thoroughly informed on the subject assigned to him and is a fluent, easy and very pleasing speaker. His theme was "The Happy Medium in Naval Defense."

Mr. Duckworth's address was a resume of the subjects to be covered in the propoganda so that the country at large may understand our wants. Our silver-tongued secretary more than made good and every Watsonvillean in attendance was elated with the success of his ecort.

The work of the League will be directed from Watsonville and will be under the personal charge of Mr. Duck worth.

As soon as the proper arrangements can be made a schedule will be agreed upon for Mr. Duckworth to address the civic bodies of the Pacific coast and thereafter those of every other community in the country until the goal of the League shall be reached, which is, the adequate defense of our Pacific littoral. WORK ON NEW SHOW HOUSE BEING HURRIED ALONG

Stylish Structure Throughout and Embracing New Ideas

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounced it to you, trippingly on the tongue: but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had as lief the town-crier spoke my lines." —Hamlet.

Thus Shakespeare showed the limitations of his time and of all times—the difficulty of holding the mirror up to nature, of reproducing speech, voice and action—but difficulties which at the present day have been to a large extent overcome.

In the new show house now being constructed on Broadway for Mr. Arkush the popular manager, one step farther on the road to ideal entertainment will be taken by providing (in addition to moving pictures) a stage of ample size and equipment to accommodate any theatrical production.

This is in response to the demand for and actual necessity of occasional variety. Human nature craves it, must have it.

And by the same token "Mr. Shakespeare" will have a chance to come to town at most any old time and find an "opera house" for his players. The girl in the song of course had our friend William badly mixed up in her mind, but the idea was there. She wanted to see Shakespeare after having heard so much about him.

At one point the moving picture is beyond compare—in reproducing and recording the occurrences of today, which form the history of tomorrow. Kings, armies, battlefields, fleets—all events—are commanded by it, and no mimic scene can compete with it. The greatest living artists are its best friends. Their powers will wane, but through the pictures their art is shown at its acme of freshness, beauty or strength and saved for posterity.

Mr. Arkush will be neutral. He will be in position to supply such amusement as the public taste demands.

Anyway, the new show house will be a crackerjack—of light and graceful ornamental exterior, two stores in front, large vestibule, ticket office, ladies' dressing rooms. There will be a commodious stage with 32-foot proscenium arch, and newest style picture-machine operating booth. The building itself will cover the whole 150-foot lot.

There will be 800 cushioned seats, a handsome balcony, stencilled walls and columns, and complete heating, lighting and ventilating system. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company have the latter contracts and they guarantee to maintain a temperature of 70 degrees under all conditions of weather.

The opening date will be about July 1st and "first-nighters" are already forming their plans to see the new show house. If you are going to take your own best girl, just bear the date in mind and secure tickets early. The usual sign, "How many?" will be pasted over on the first night and at the ticket office you will read, "Standing room only."

Change in Hospital Management

Mrs. Hulings has disposed of her sanitarium in this city to Miss Lassen and Miss Harcourt, two professional nurses of Los Gatos. The young ladies conducted a rest home at that place for some time past. Miss Lassen is a graduate nurse of a prominent hospital in Copenhagen and Miss Harcourt is a graduate of a Dublin institution. Both young ladies are expert nurses. They have taken charge of the hospital and intend making many improvements in the institution. They will soon be joined by Miss Vendel, also a graduate nurse from Copenhagen. The three young women will conduct an up-to-date hospital with all modern appliances and will use the very latest treatment of diseases. Mrs. Huling is to retire from active work after long years of labor in treating the sick and has a host of friends who wish her every happiness in her retirement.

MRS. MARGARET NELSON DIES

Mrs. Margaret Nelson, a resident of this city for over forty years, passed away following a long illness early last Monday. The deceased was a native of Ireland, aged 78 years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. T. C. Rice and Miss Sally Nelson, and one son, John Nelson. The funeral services at the residence last Tuesday afternoon were impressive. Interment was in Union cemetery.

Rev. C. H. Stevens, after reading the 23d psalm and the 14th chapter of St. John, said in part: "The Shepherd Psalm is a source of great comfort to those in the evening of life; who have learned by experience to know the tender voice of the Divine Shepherd, and the joy of feeding in green pastures and drinking the cool waters of everlasting life. She longed to go to he with those who had gone before and to know face to face the king in all His beauty who had gone to prepare a place for her. We may live in a tent or a cottage here, but in heaven we shall have a mansion." To the family, he said: "There is a silver lining to every cloud, and yours is the fact that mothers was all a mother could have left nothing undone that sons and daughters could do to make the closing mouths and years of her life the brightest possible. Her life has gone down like the sun, leaving the rays of sunshine in memory of all who knew her."

EDWIN FOX AND GEO. McNULTY TAKE OVER TACOMA MILL CO.

Former Employees to Continue the Business of Pioneer Firm

One of the most notable changes in the business history of Redwood City is the transfer of the local yards and business of the Tacoma Mill Company to the Fox-McNulty Lumber Company. The Tacoma Mill Company ranks as one of the pioneer business concerns of San Mateo County, having been continuously engaged in the shipping, warehousing and lumber business at various points in the county for the past sixty years. Originally established under the name of Hanson and Wallace, the firm has been variously known as the Hanson-Ackerson and Company, Hanson and Co., and the Tacoma Mill Company, but has always been a continuance of the original concern.

This company has now been succeeded by the Fox-McNulty Lumber Company, who have taken over all local departments and will continue to conduct the business in the old location at the corner of Washington and Bradford streets. The members of the new firm are Edwin B. Fox and George W. McNulty, both of whom have for many years been in the employ of the old concern and are thoroughly competent, by reason of this long connection, to continue the business successfully. Mr. Fox has been in the employ of the Tasoma Mill Company tor the past thirty-three years, twenty-one of which has been spent at Redwood City as the local manager. Mr. McNulty is also well versed in the business, having been in the employ of the old firm for the past eighteen years, first as a practical lumber handler in the yards of the company and later for many years as bookkeeper in the local office. The members of the new firm may thus be relied upon to continue the same system of fair dealing which has been an important factor in the success of the concern which they have succeeded and which has caused it to become recognized as the leader of the lumber business of San Mateo County.

COUNTY STRONG BOX IS MOVED TO BASEMENT OF COURT HOUSE

Many Millions of County Money Has Passed Its Strong Doors

The old safe belonging to the County of San Mateo that stood in the corner of P. P. Chamberlain's store for lo these many years and through whose iron doors passed millions of dollars of the tax payers' money, was removed to the basement of the court house during the week. It will remain there until the new jail is completed and then it will grace a prominent position in the sheriff's quarters of the new building. The safe was purchased thirty-five years ago by Treasurer Wilcox, who died a few weeks ago at Oakland and W. H. Lawrence who was at that time a member of the board of supervisors and who has also passed to the great beyond. Thus has the old strong box survived its purchasers and perhaps its makers but its usefulness has been impaired and it has given way to more modern money chambers but it has served its purpose and fulfilled its obligations to its owners. It now deserves to hold a place of honor in the archives of a greatful county. It is a relic of the past.

In its history is entwined the name of the present treasurer, P. P. Chamberlain, who has had charge of the funds that entered its door for the past 34 years. Mr. Chamberlain like the old safe is strong and rugged with every indication of being in charge of the funds of San Mateo county for many years to come. He is as strong politically as ever and his health is just as good as it was on the day that he took over the safe and its contents from Dr. Wilcox, thirty-four years ago.

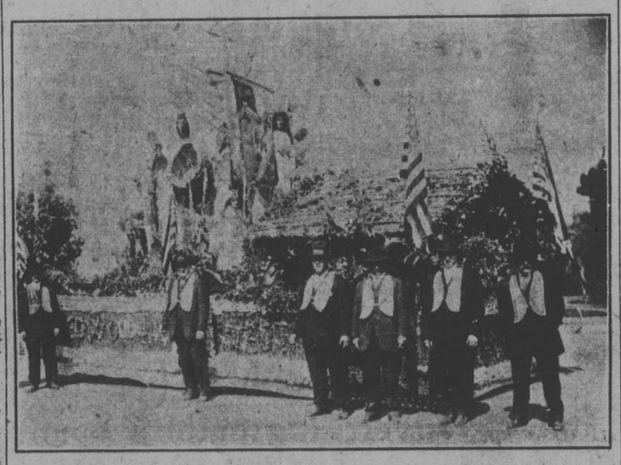
OWLS' FLOAT WINS FIRST PRIZE



The float City Nest "Order of Owls" which won first prize for the best fraternal float in the parade Thursday of last week is herewith produced. This float took the crowd. A great hollow stump on the platform contained one "nest" who kept up a continuous "Whoo-Whoo" while wise "old" birds filled in the rest of the stage and kept people well entertained. The attractive float was constructed by Louis Deluchi and Tony Bitolucci of this city. Joe Bianco built the stump that attracted most of the attention.

Force Given by Stanford Seniors

"A Pair of Sixes", the great farce scream by Edward Pebles, will be played by an all-star cast at Stanford on the evening of Wednesday, May 17, as the 1916 Senior Farce. This comedy, which ran on Broadway for 500 performances, won the name of America's Greatest Farce because throughout its three acts, there is not a dull line, not a moment minus action and because of the strong thread of interest that runs through the play. "A pair of Sixes" is an unusual mixture of love and business, in which love wins out. When two partners cannot agree as to which is the brain and which the mere figurehead in their Eureka Digestive Pill Company, their attorney fixes it so that a game of poker shall decide. The loser, it is further stipulated, shall become the butler of the more fortunate partner. T. Boggs Johns loses to a pair of sixes. While butler in the home of the lucky partner, his sweetheart comes as houseguest and the contract binds him to silence. There's the rub! Leading roles in "A Pair of Sixes" will be in the veteran hands of Buford Williams and Miss Mason, th latter of Palo Alto. Both Williams and Miss Mason have already won repute by the high calibre of the acting they offer. Seats are now on sale at the Stanford Bookstore, Stanford Campus and at Weingartner's Drug Store, Palo Alto at 50 cents, seventy-five cents and one dollar, or may be had at the box office, May 17th.

LA HONDA NEWS

Mrs. B. Cavalli now occupies her new home near Bellvale.

The newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Guerra and Mr. and Mrs. Edourdo Guerra are happy at the old Cavalli ranch.

The electric light system from Woodside has been installed at the Liebes place and will be extended to La Honda.

Sunny Sunday and the fishing season brought hundreds to enjoy our pretty groves.

The La Honda school now boasts of 15 pupils, the largest class in two years. The play ground and school are being improved—new equipment being put in—notably desks which can be adjusted to the height of each child. For instruction of the pupils, Mrs. Florence Brown, our teacher, has had planted a garden, which will be quite a feature, if the chickens don't scratch it up.

BELMONT YOUTH LOSES LIFE ON STEAMER ROANOKE

Among those reported missing in the great disaster of the ill-fated steamer Roanoke is Fred Havard, who is well known in Redwood City. The young man graduated from the Belmont Grammar School in 1907 and afterwards entered Sequoia Union High School of this city for two years, leaving to take a position on the Roanoke. He was promoted many times until he became third assistant engineer, a position he held when the steamer went down off the coast of San Louis Obispo last Monday. His mother resides at Belmont and she is frantic with grief over the loss of her boy.

Mr. Havard was a most exemplary young man, having no bad habits and giving every attention to his duties. He had made many trips to South America. He was very popular at the high school and a favorite with the faculty.

PIONEER COASTSIDE WOMAN IS IN GREAT PEACE

Mrs. America Wyman, said to be the first white woman to take up her residence in what is now the city of Stockton, is dead. She died at her home in Halfmoon Bay on Tuesday. The gold rush of 1849 was still five years away when, with her father, Mrs. Wyman came across the plains in 1844 from her birthplace in St. Claire county, Mo. She was born in 1832 and was a child of 12 when her family came westward. She was married to George Francis Wyman, a Stockton merchant of the early days, in 1846 at Sutter's Fort. Mrs. Wyman is survived by seven sons and two daughters, most of whom live in the Santa Clara valley.

SUNDAY OUTING RATES

To encourage Sunday outings in California the Southern Pacific Company announced yesterday that commencing April 30th, round trip tickets to most points in this state where the one-way fare is 50 cents or over but does not exceed $5 will be sold on a basis of one fare for the round trip. They will be good on all trains on Sundays but will be good for return only on trains leaving before Sunday midnight. An illustration of what the new tariff arrangement means, a person desiring to visit San Jose on Sunday could go down there and back for the same amount of money he would have to pay on week days to make the trip one way.

YOU NEVER CAN TELL

At three o'clock on a freezing morning in mid-winter, our fire whistle blew an alarm in the low and grewsome tone, peculiar only to that early hour. Some of our citizens heard the alarm, but many did not. Was this a dangerous fire or a false alarm? There were at least five boys of our volunteer department that did not hesitate in their decision. Scantily clad, these several boys made their way to the box from which the alarm had peen turned in. To these boys it seemed hours before they had discovered the cause and had then turned in a second alarm, but not much time could have elapsed, as one of our largest residences was saved that night. If they had not taken the interest to literally "help their neighbor" and run at least a mile to the outskirts of town on a freezing morning, the fire, which already had burned out the kitchen of the residence, would have taken the entire home in a short time.

The first Grand Ball since the reorganization of the department is to take place in Foresters' Hall Saturday night, May 20, 1916, and to show your appreciation you should come to their aid. They have not hesitated, now will they hesitate when you need them, and some day you will.

WAR ON ENGLISH SPARROWS

The Fish and Game Commission, to which is delegated the function of protecting and preserving the wild life of the State, has declared war on the English Sparrow. Throughout the United States this bird has proved to be a pest and many eastern cities have waged war against it for many years past. Here in California, as elsewhere, the English sparrow is not only filthy in its habits and destructive to crops, but in addition drives out the native insectivorous and song birds which are beneficial to man's interests. The campaign to be instituted by the Commission will probably constitute the first united effort toward this end to be made by any state in the union. A leaflet giving methods of identifying English Sparrows and means of destroying them will soon be issued. In addition a statewide campaign of publicity will be undertaken to encourage a united effort to rid California of the bird pest. A week will be set aside during which everyone will be asked to cooperate in the destruction of sparrows and all of the deputies of the Fish and Game Commission will be set to work killing sparrows and directing others in the work.

Will Kill 'Em All

In each burrow put one waste ball saturated with Kilmol. After a few minutes, ignite. The deadly fumes instantly reach every nook and cranny of Mr. Squirrel's or Mr. Gopher's burrow. Kilmol gets him every time—poisons as well as asphyxiates. Kilmol costs you less than one cent per burrow, and one application does the business. Any other method requires from two to six times over at a much higher cost. Government, State and County officers use Kilmol and get 100% efficiency. Results absolutely guaranteed or money refunded.

Your local dealer can furnish waste balls better and cheaper than home-made. Ask him about Kilmol, and about new U. S. Government formula of poisoned barley.

Sir Douglas Mawson and Companions Brave Antarctic Blizzards to Secure Moving Pictures

Expedition Sent Out by British Government to Adelie Land Secures Wonderful Moving Pictures of the Antarctic—Pictures Cost $300,000 and Are Said to Be Most Expensive Films Ever Taken

Copyright, 1915, by Sir Douglas Mawson.

SINCE the year 1840 no sail had been within the antarctic circle over the 60 degrees of longtitude until the Mawson expedition arrived in 1911, and before the year 1840 no evidence had been found that any human being had ever at any time been in that portion of the world, and the existence of land there has always been doubted by geographers.

While no human life existed in this newly discovered portion of the world, animal life abounds there, and in the waters fish live in greater numbers than in the tropics, which are popularly supposed to contain more aquatic life than colder waters.

The strangest of all these antarctic inhabitants is the penguin, and the motion pictures secured by Explorer Mawson show this half bird, half fish, in a most amusing and at the same time highly instructive manner. Having no experience with man, they were found to be remarkably tame, and exceptionally intimate views were secured. These films were secured for the Chautauqua at great expense and are said to be the most costly films ever made, costing over $300,000.
